PROCLAMATION
BUILDING SAFETY WEEK IN BROWN COUNTY
MAY 21 -27, 2012

Whereas, through our County's continuing efforts to address the critical issues of safety in the built environment that affect our citizens, both in everyday life and in times of natural disaster, give us confidence that our structures are safe and sound, and;

Whereas, our confidence is achieved through the devotion of vigilant guardians—building safety and fire prevention officials, architects, engineers, builders, laborers and others in the construction industry—who work year-round to ensure the safe construction of buildings where we live, learn, work, worship, play, and;

Whereas, Building Safety Week reminds the public about the critical role of our communities' largely unknown guardians of public safety, our local code officials, who assure us of safe and livable buildings; and,

Whereas, this year, as we observe Building Safety Week with the theme, "An International Celebration of Safe and Sensible Structures" we encourage all Americans to raise awareness of the importance of building safety; and consider projects to improve building safety at home and in the community, and to acknowledge the essential service provided to all of us by local building and fire departments in protecting lives and property;

Now, therefore, it is hereby proclaimed that May 21-27th, 2012, is Building Safety Week in Brown County. Accordingly, our citizens are encouraged to join communities across America to participate in Building Safety Week activities.

IN THE MATTER OF PROCLAMATION – OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

PROCLAMATION OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

WHEREAS, Older Americans Month is observed nationally each May to celebrate the accomplishments of our older citizens and to express our gratitude for the contributions they have made, and continue to make, to our communities; and

Whereas, the older adults in Brown County have an important role in sharing knowledge, wisdom, and understanding of the history of our community through interactions with children, youth, and adults from other generations; and

Whereas, the fruits of knowledge and experience can be effectively transferred from generation to generation through meaningful social interactions; and

Whereas, their interactions with family, friends, and neighbors across generations enrich the lives of everyone involved; and

Whereas, our community can provide opportunities to enrich citizens young and old by:

- Emphasizing the value of including elders in public and family life
- Creating opportunities for older Americans to interact with people of different generations
- Providing services, technologies, and support systems that allow older adults to participate in social activities in the community

Now Therefore, we, the Brown County Commissioners, do hereby proclaim May 2012 to be Older Americans Month. We urge every citizen to take time this month to engage with our older citizens through enjoyable social interactions such as sports, games, contests, and other forms of play.
