Whereas, violence against women and children continues to be a more prevalent social problem; and

Whereas, the problem of domestic violence is not confined to any group of people, but crosses all economic, racial and societal barriers; and

Whereas, the crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy, dignity, security and humanity through the systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, psychological and economic control and/or abuse; and

Whereas, the impact of domestic violence is wide-ranging, directly affecting women and their children and society as a whole; and

Whereas, it is survivors of domestic violence themselves who have been at the forefront of efforts to bring peace and equity to the home; and

Whereas, it is fitting to set aside a special time to bring this issue to the attention of all Brown County citizens so they can become better informed and involved in programs to eliminate this epidemic from our society, and to also let families know that they are not alone and there is help and support available for them; and

Whereas, the Adams/Brown County Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Task Force, is joining forces with victim service programs, criminal justice officials and concerned citizens throughout Brown County and across the State of Ohio to observe Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Now, therefore, we the Board of Brown County Commissioners do hereby proclaim the month of October 2021, as "Domestic Violence Awareness Month" in Brown County, Ohio.
